NEW STORE and Q&A FORUM for TheRawFoodWorld.com - 13% OFF ANY ORDER :)))

OOOooooo my Goddess, we are SO excited to share our news with you that after over a year in the making, TheRawFoodWorld.com has had a complete makeover and is now MUCH more user-friendly, modern-looking and BEAUTIFUL :))) YAY :)

To celebrate, we are offering everyone a HUGE 13% OFF discount coupon for ANY order at the store, until Midnight Pacific time, this Sunday, March the 21st. The coupon code is "NewStore" and you can use that all this week at www.TheRawFoodWorld.com to get 13% OFF any order :)

The new version of the site went live this weekend and has been attracting lots of lovely feedback already - thank you :) There is a new look for the Store, PLUS our TV and Radio Shows have a gorgeous new home HERE and we even added a totally new "Q&A Forum" area, where you can get your questions answered about the raw lifestyle, in a community setting.

We are soooooo thrilled to bring you these new sites...and I am especially excited to let all of you outside of the USA know that finally the new site is set up to handle International orders smooooothly :))) This feature of the store has been a long time coming - every day for the last few years, we have received emails from people all over the world wanting to place an order and finding the store process complex and confusing to do so - well, no more ;) Now the Store is finally set up to process International orders just as easily as domestic orders - HURRAAAAAAY (I am sure that our customer services team especially are cheering with delight now... ;)

The new Q&A Forum Area has a unique format, developed by computer programmers, which allows anyone to answer and ask questions and everyone gets to 'vote' on which answer they feel makes the most sense...the answers with the most 'thumbs up' float up to the top of the pile, which makes it much easier for those seeking answers to sift out the most useful info...you can join in the Q&A fun at the new site HERE.

I am constantly amazed when I think that Mr. M started the whole Raw Food World site a decade or so ago in his mum's house, doing ALL the work himself...to see how far the site and this community has come in the last 10 years is astounding to me - and it is our hope and desire that these spangly NEW sites will help to keep on supporting the expansion and flow of this vibrant community even more - ENJOY:

Leonid Sharashkin Interview - This Month at TheRawFoodWorldRadioShow.com :)

I am THRILLED to announce that this month we have Dr. Leonid Sharashkin as the guest on The Raw Food World Radio Show :) Leonid is the translator of the "Anastasia" books into English from Russian, as well as a permaculturist, father, teacher and visionary...I think this is the interview I'm most excited about so far - I squealed when Mr. M announced Leonid as the next guest, on last month's show ;) lol...it feels almost like a direct connection to the goddess of the Taiga herself, Anastasia ;)

Mr. Monarch reports:

"We are SO EXCITED to interview Leonid!!! I have so many questions for him. The main one being... Of course... "Does Anastasia exist?". We all may have a good idea of what his answer will likely be, however, I don't intend to give up easily with this question. We're going to push some buttons and go DEEP into the truth..."

Additionally, we have many other questions for Leonid in regards to the Anastasia way of life and permaculture. Lastly, we heard a rumor that a tenth Anastasia book has been released. I want to know if this is true and if he plans on translating it any time soon!!!!"

To listen in free to Matt Monarch interviewing Leonid Sharashkin, LIVE on March 26th, from 6pm Pacific time (9pm East coast), click the link below to sign up:
